VI. Rules for making up for shortfalls

1. You can only make up a shortfall once during the application period!
2. A deficiency may only be rectified if the applicant has returned a first-round application with the deficiencies indicated.
3. Failure to remedy these deficiencies will result in the Committee's decision to evaluate the incomplete application in accordance with the call for proposals.

4. If the application is rejected, no replacement is possible.
5. Failure to comply with the deadline will result in a limitation period.

VII. Appeal

Appeals against the decision may be lodged within 15 days of the date on which the decision is communicated to the student (or otherwise comes to the student's attention). The appeal must be sent to hjb@kancellaria.elte.hu, marked „Hallgatói Jogorvoslati Bizottság részére”. The Student Legal Remedies Committee's remit is limited exclusively to remedying violations of law affecting students and decisions contrary to the University's regulations. As a body acting at second instance, the Student Legal Remedies Committee may not exercise discretion on grounds of equity and does not decide on requests for equitable consideration.

The appeal must contain the following mandatory information: the student's name, Neptun code, residential address, email address, name of their faculty, and the identification number of the decision against which the student wishes to seek legal remedy.

The appeal must specify which provision or part of the first-instance decision the student contests. In addition, the student must submit a specific request stating to what extent and for what reasons they ask the Committee to amend the contested provision or part of the first-instance decision.

The Student Legal Remedies Committee will communicate its decision to the student via the Neptun Unified Study System. The decision can be accessed under Studies → Progress → Transcript → Official Entries.

VIII. Exclusionary reasons for submitting an application

1. Students who have already received other support or scholarships for the same activity may not submit an application.
2. Anyone whose activity dates back more than 1 year from the date of application.
3. Activities that have not yet taken place at the time of application will only take place afterwards.

IX. Relevant documents

1. For certified documents, the Committee will only accept electronic documents in PDF, JPG, JPEG and PNG formats, e.g. doc, docx will NOT be accepted.

2. Documents validated with a signature and seal are only acceptable if the signature and seal attesting to authenticity are on the document and are clearly visible and redible on the electronic document.
3. A document authenticated by an electronic signature shall only be accepted if the electronic signature attesting to its authenticity is clearly visible on the document and can be unequivocally identified as belonging to the body or person issuing the certification.
4. Multi-page documents are only valid once all pages have been uploaded.
5. For documents in a language other than Hungarian, a translation by the applicant or a professional translator must be uploaded along with the document.
6. All applicants should note that false reporting may result in disciplinary proceedings being initiated against the faculty!
